RÉSUMÉ

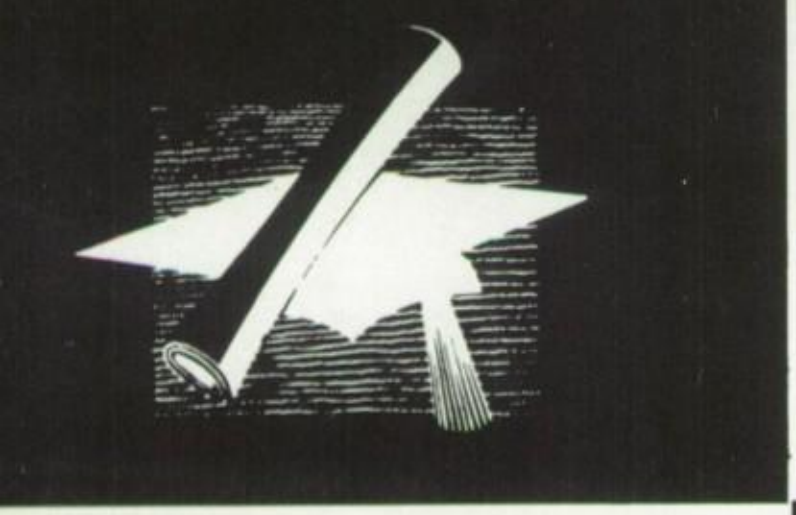
PEWAMO-WESTPHALIA COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

PEWAMO, MICHIGAN
1968



And they recorded all events--how that they had striven together in all adventures and how that they had shared alike both in glory and pain. And they made last the record to treasure it in all the days to come.

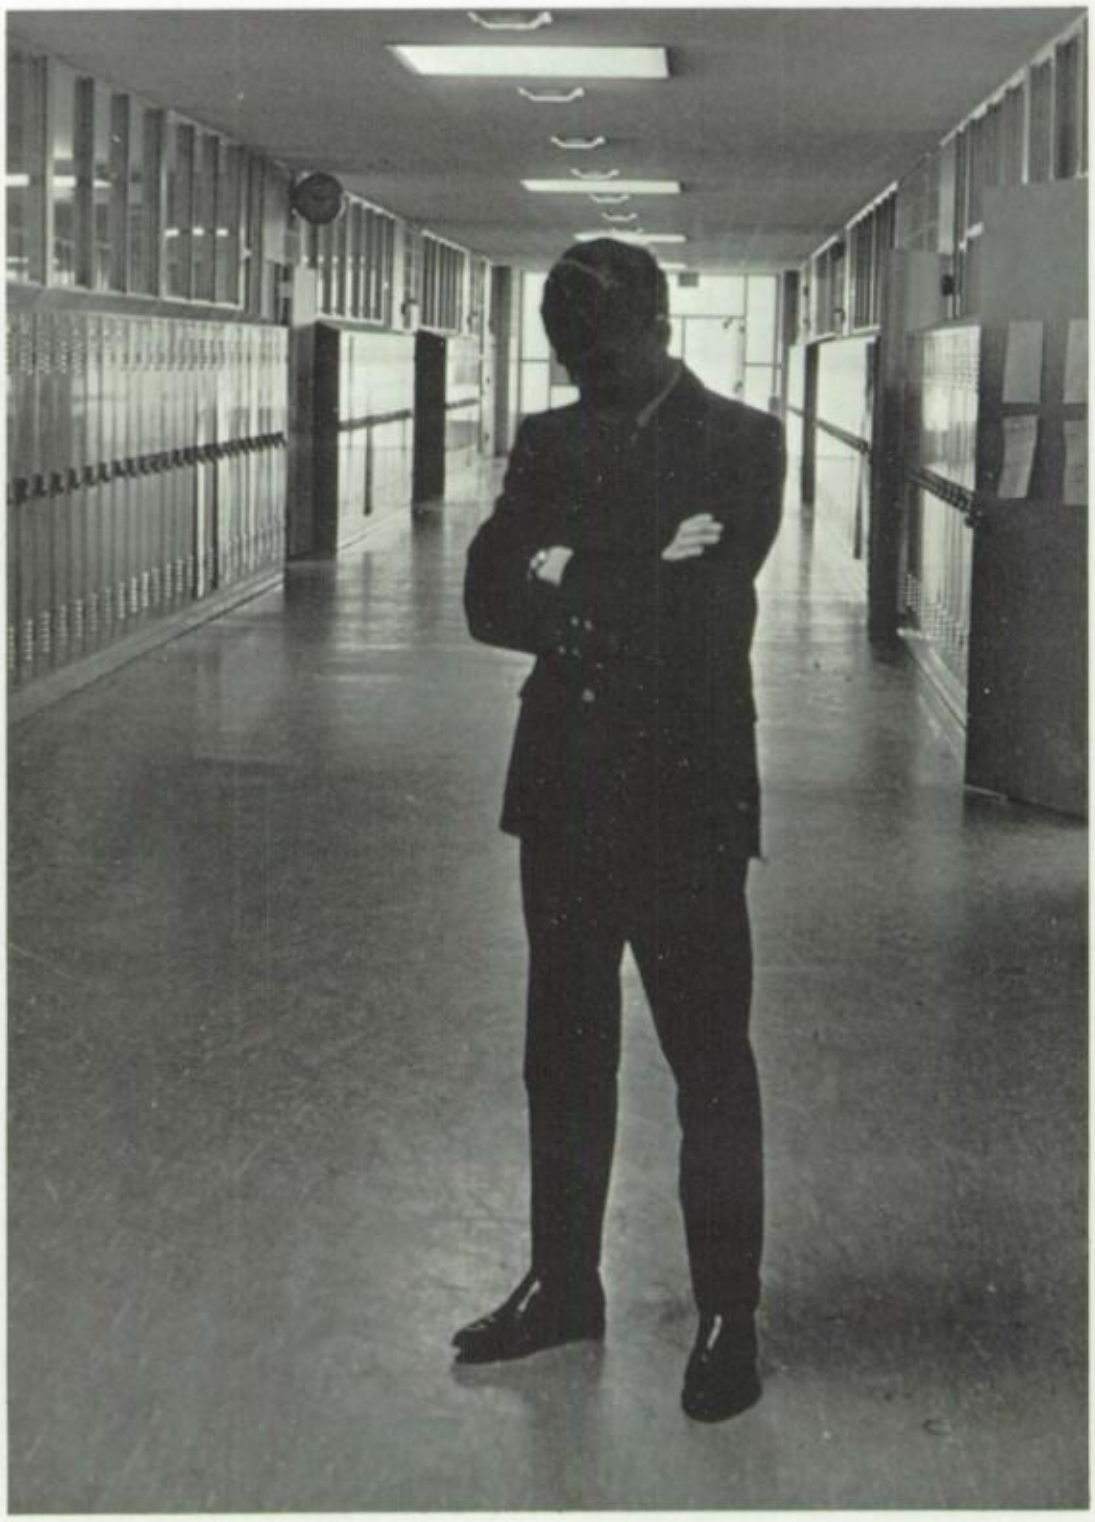
I am a freshman.

I am unsure of myself,

And do not yet feel a part.

I am alone.

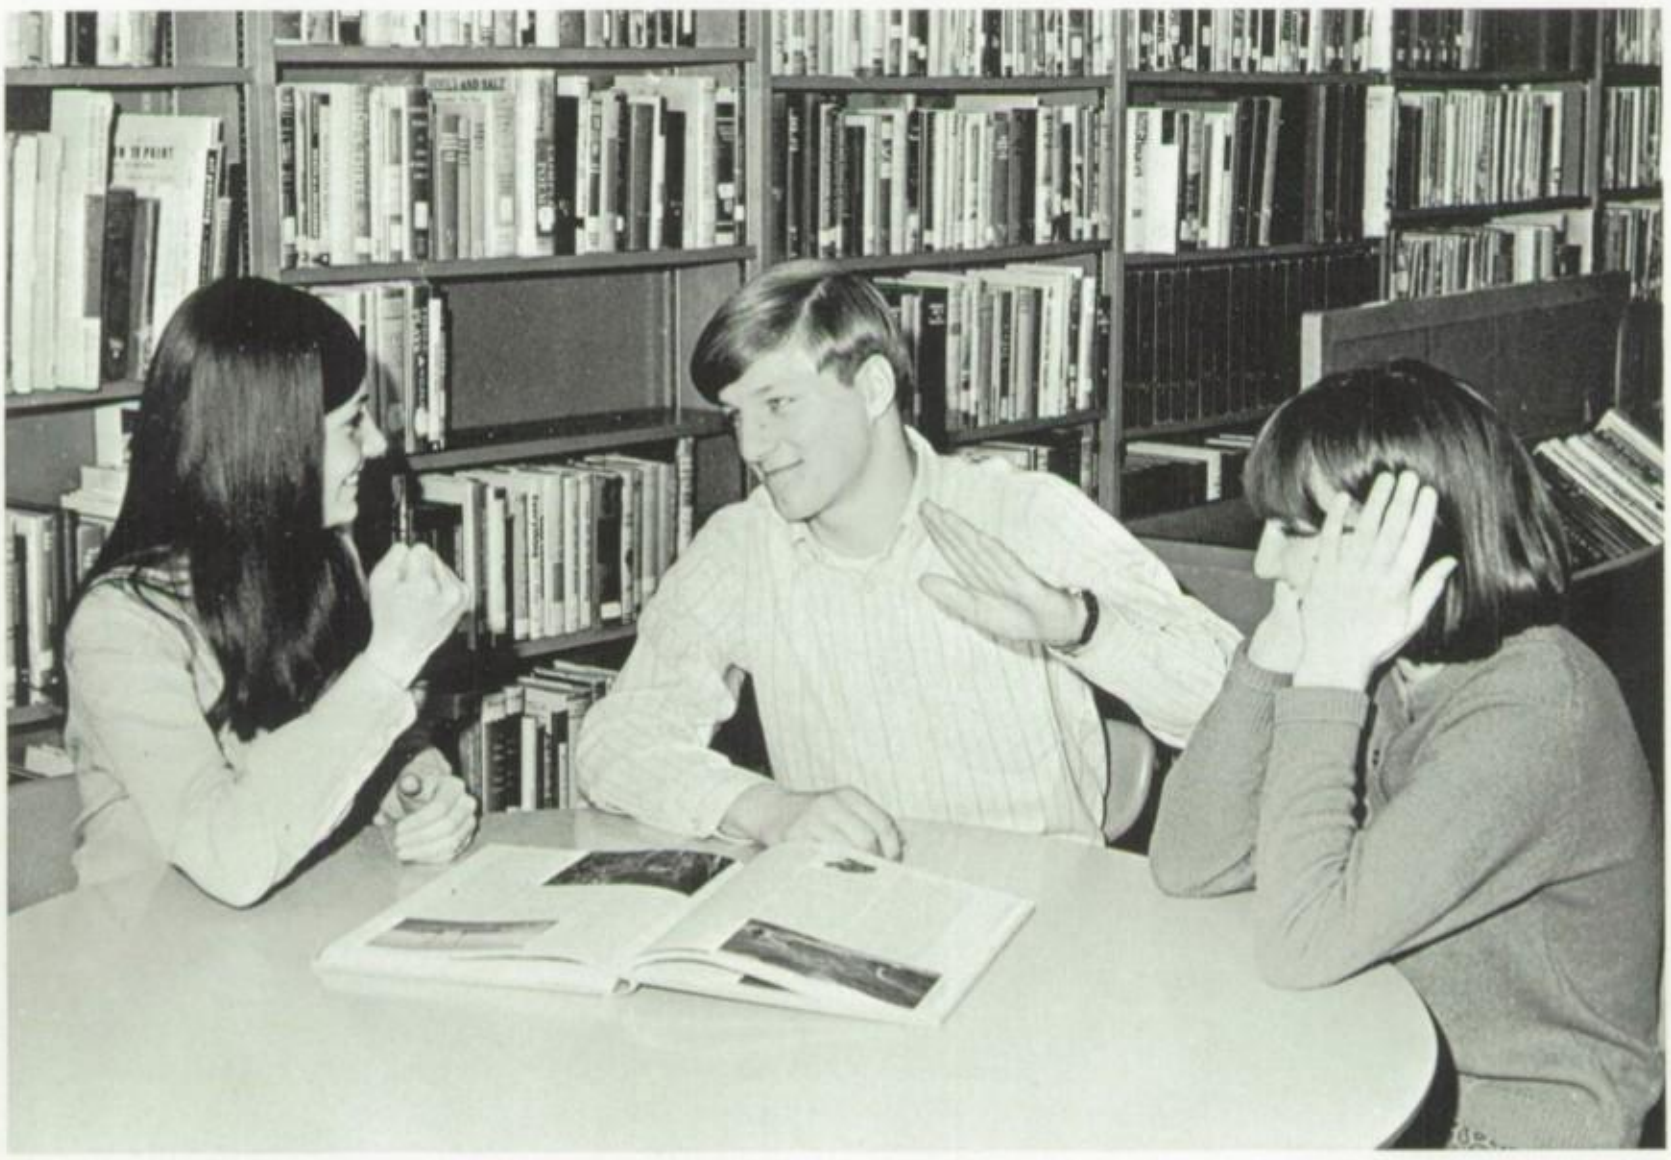


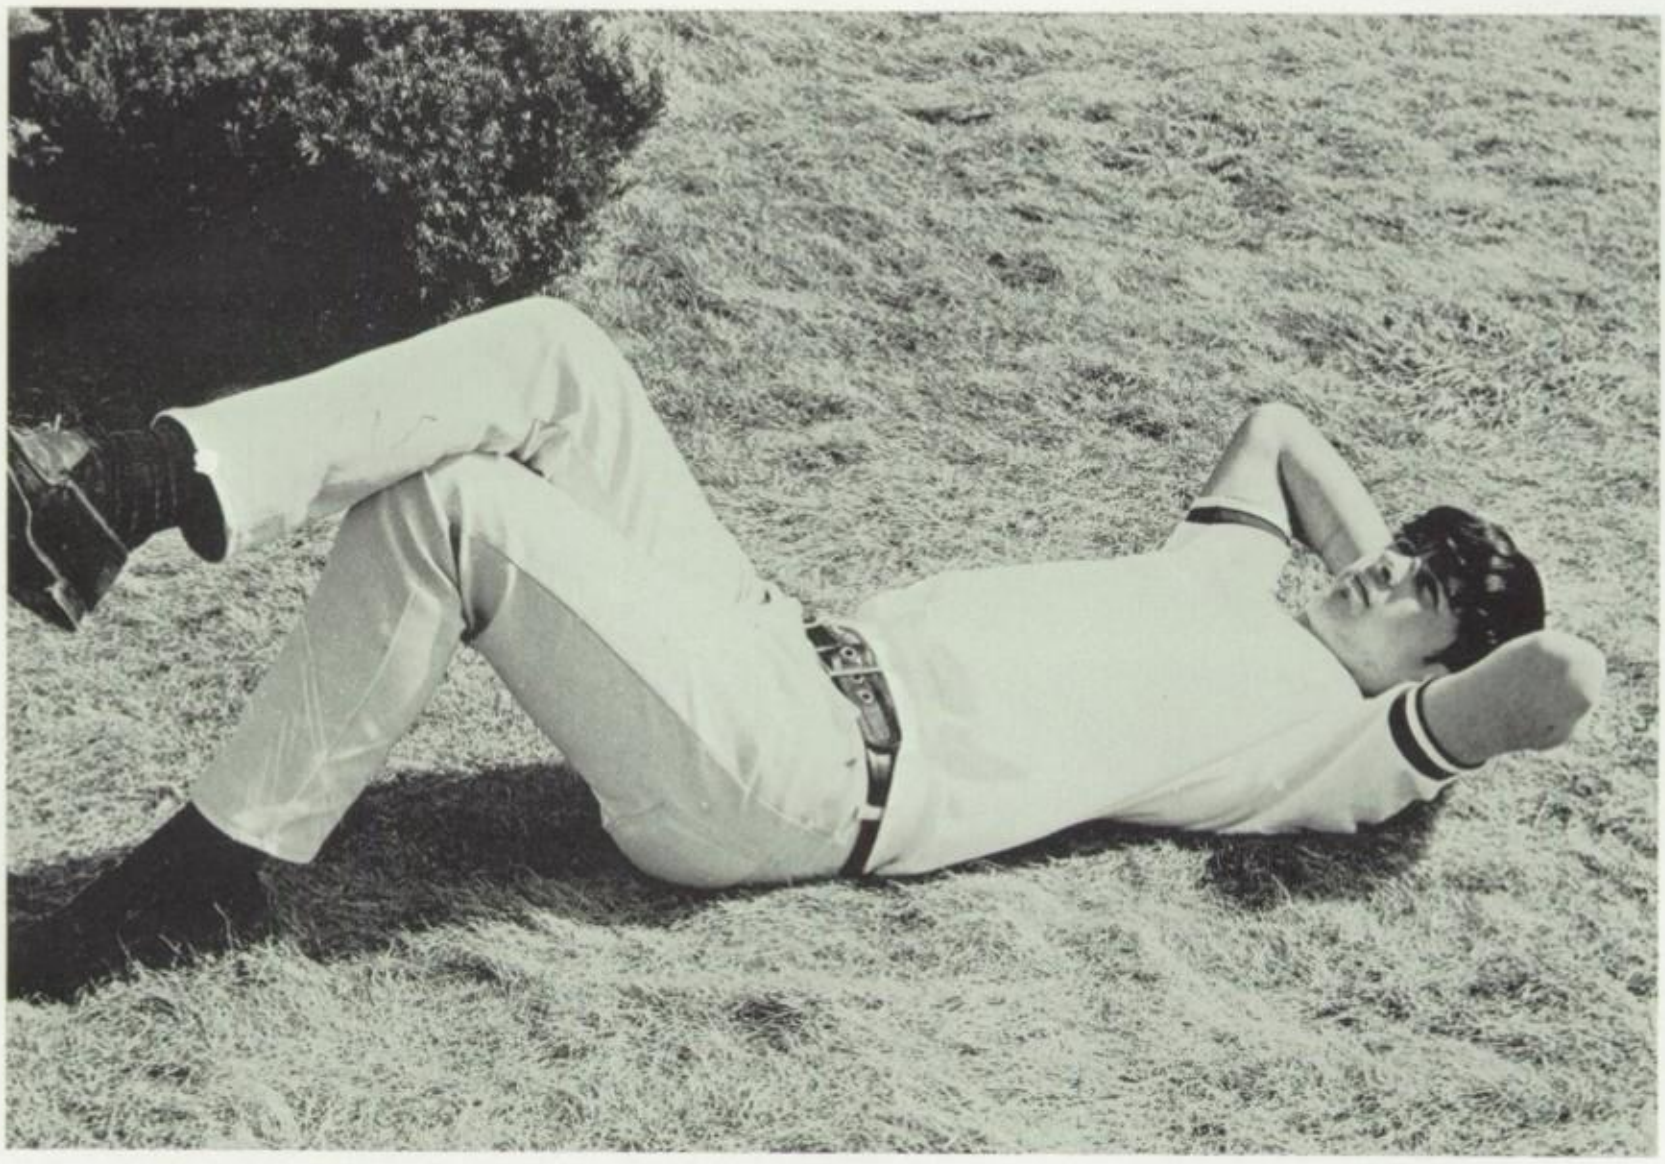
I am a sophomore.

I am learning to get along with

Others and to express myself.

I am learning to belong.





I am a junior.

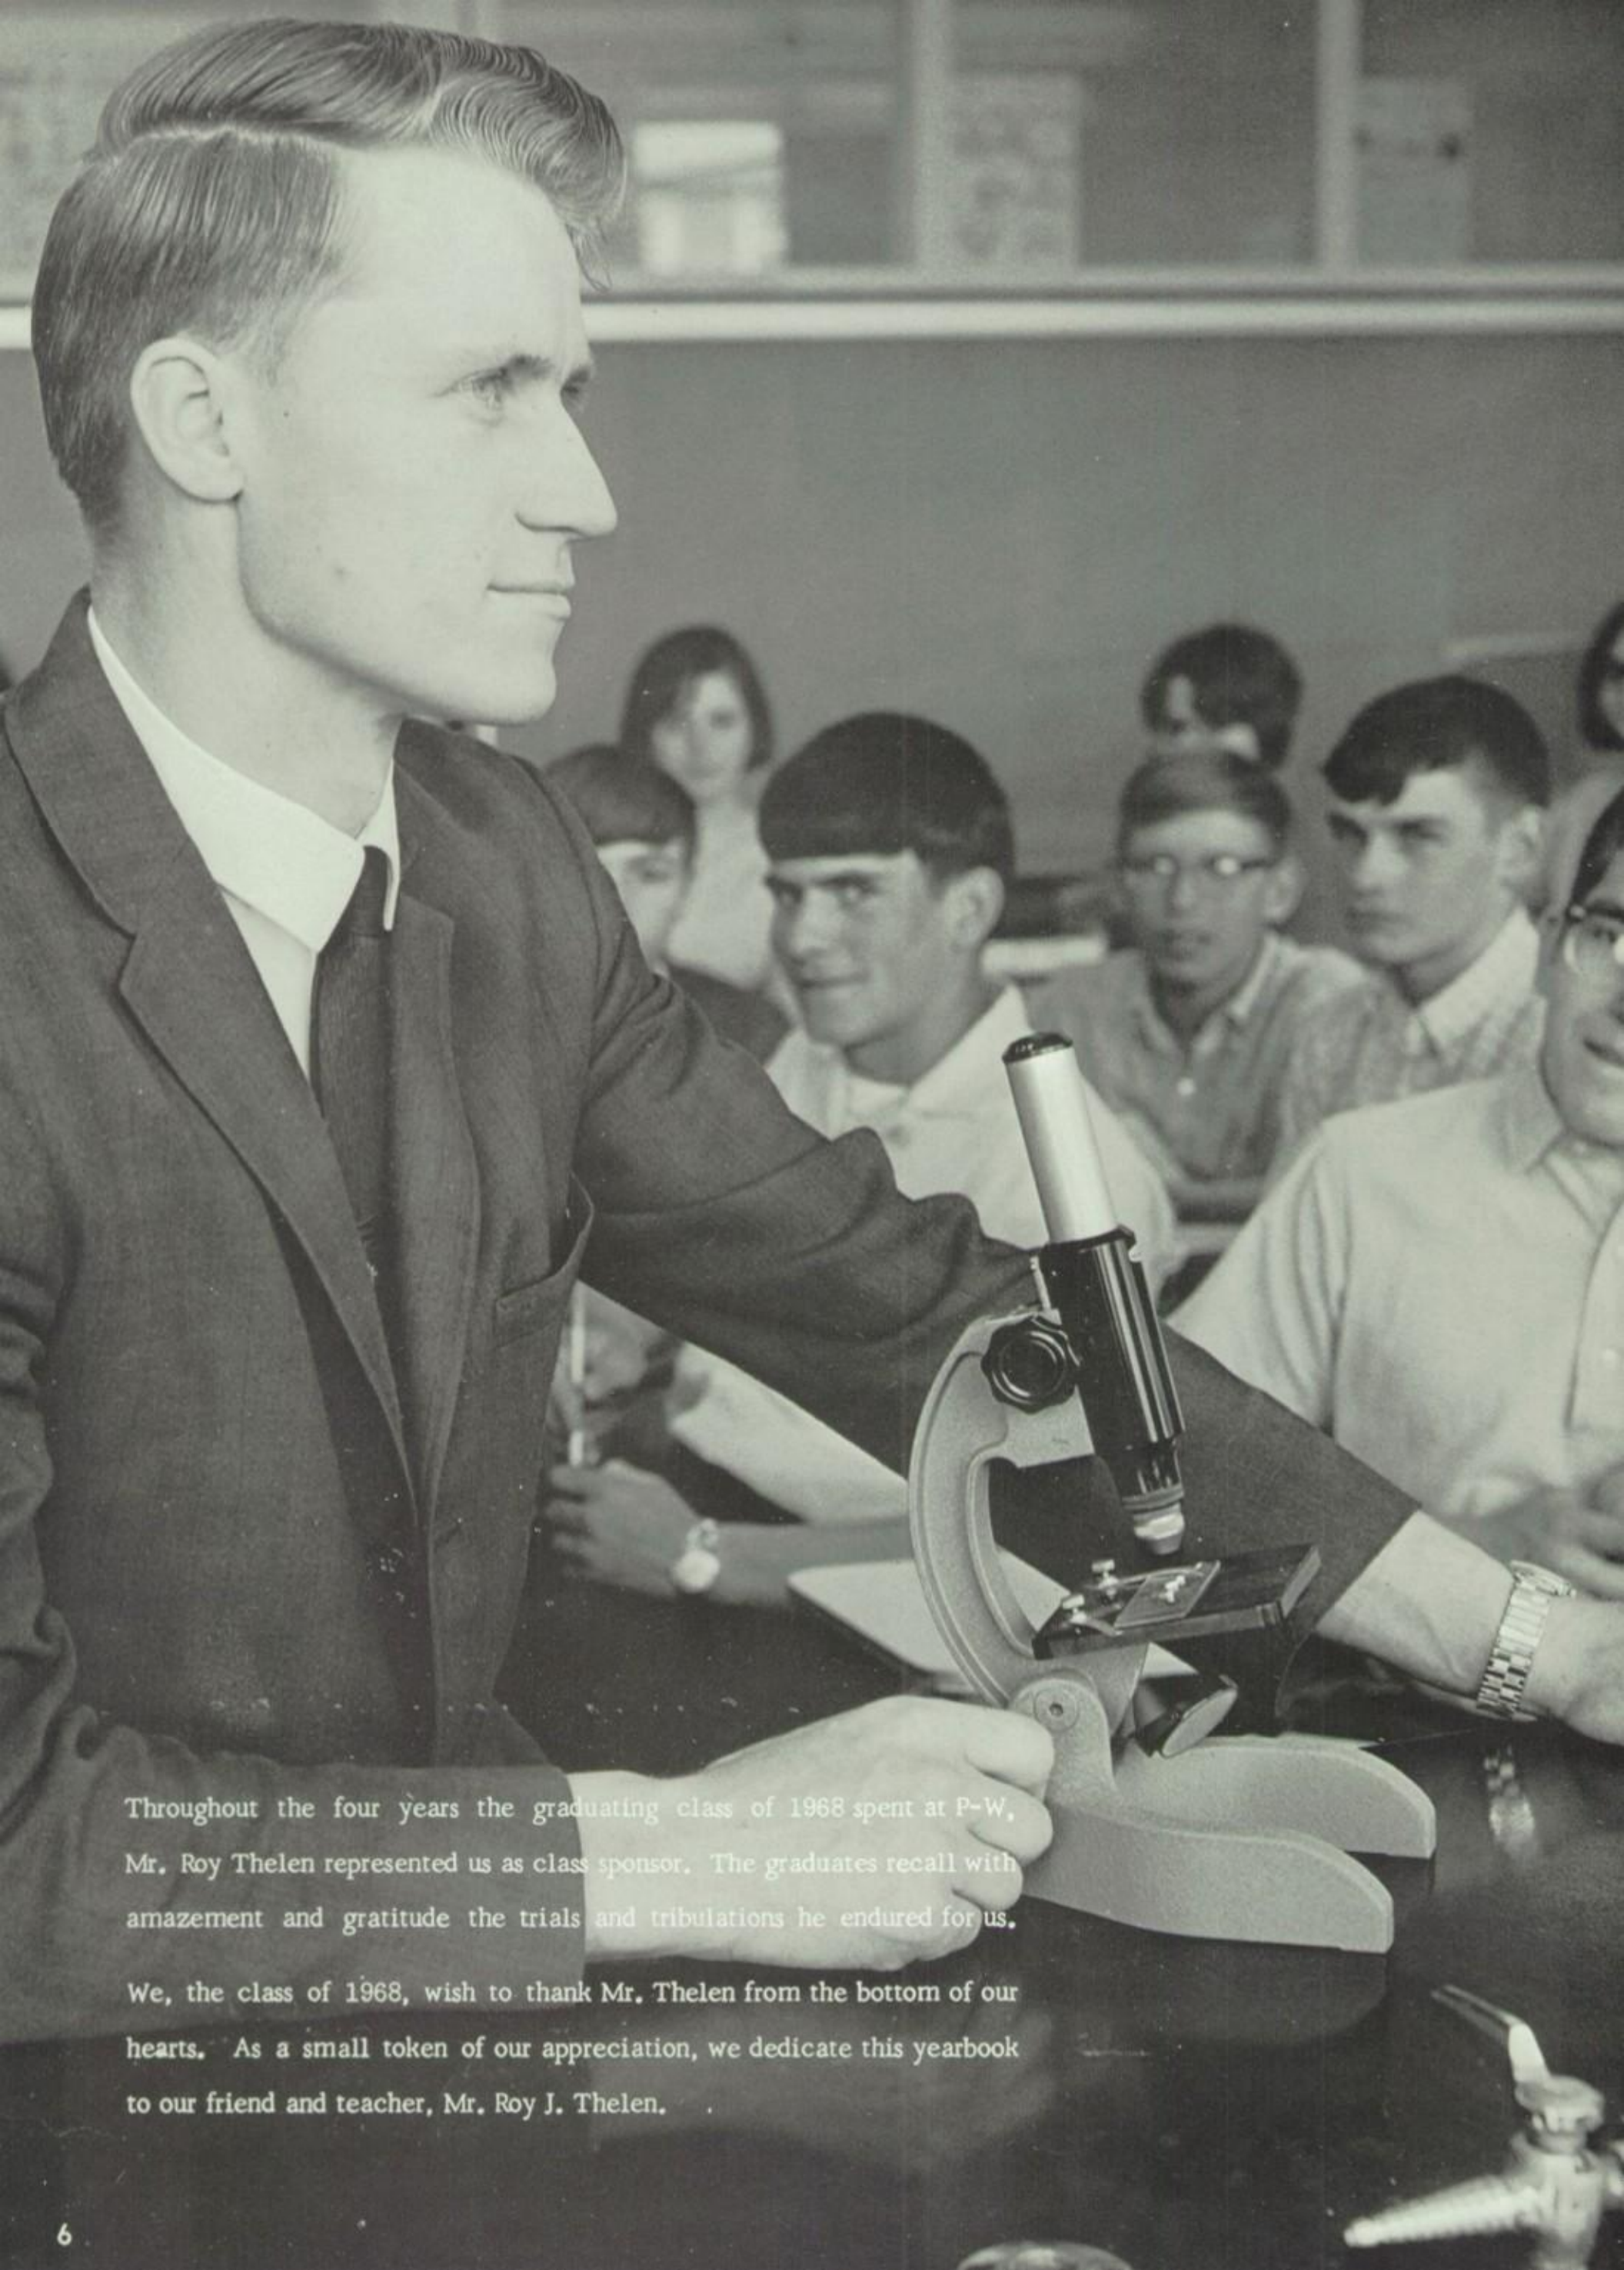
I am wondering what
The future holds for me.

I am able to dream.

I am a senior.

I do not dream of the future,
But live it.

I am not afraid.



Throughout the four years the graduating class of 1968 spent at P-W, Mr. Roy Thelen represented us as class sponsor. The graduates recall with amazement and gratitude the trials and tribulations he endured for us.

We, the class of 1968, wish to thank Mr. Thelen from the bottom of our hearts. As a small token of our appreciation, we dedicate this yearbook to our friend and teacher, Mr. Roy J. Thelen.

TODAY'S PROBLEMS

If these don't inspire our boys, nothing will.

"All girls report to the gym immediately!"

Gee, Rex was here just a minute ago.

All he did was roll a penny down the hall!!!

I don't use ban and look at all the friends I've got.

He came back and we're glad.

The big daddy has spoken.

That's it boys - seniors first.

The whole deal makes me sick.

He didn't tell me it wasn't an open-book test.

All I did was tell her she slept with my frog!

Hey Jerry, take this ace.

Student Life Revolves Around Student Council

Few organizations this year had a membership of 335 students. Besides being the most important and influential organization at P-W, it is also THE organization in the school. Under the guidance of Mrs. Geller, it progressed by leaps and bounds in all areas. For the first time the meetings were open to the entire school, thus improving the communication between members and students. The highlight of the year was the successful donation of $500 to Project Hope. Yes, the S.C. representatives worked many long and hard hours to help P-W become a better school.

Skit by P-W at State Convention.

The Future Homemakers of America began the new school year with 100 members. Leading P-W's chapter on to great heights are its officers: Joan Kramer, President; Therese Thelen, Vice President; Claudia Wieber, Secretary; and Diane Huhn, Treasurer. The FHA has participated in regional and state meetings. They have given a party at the St. Vincent Home. FHA'ers all agree that it has been their biggest and best year, and they like to attribute this to the fine guidance of Mrs. Casari.

FFA ACHIEVEMENTS

The Pewamo-Westphalia Chapter of the Future Farmers of America started the '67-68 school year by sending their officers to Leadership Training Camp at Camp Kett in Cadillac. Under the guidance of Mr. J. Gibson, representatives prepared for the FFA State Convention. Chosen were Bob Hafner and Dick Wohlfert. To stimulate higher marks, a Scholarship Ladder was erected. Awards were given to the four highest members on this ladder.

This year our chapter of the Future Teachers of America came under new guidance with the arrival of Miss Rehner who assumed the duties of advisor. We helped to arrange the Parent-Teacher Conference held in November and also acted as hostesses on behalf of the student body. In an assembly presented by F. T. A. in February Trooper Bruce Smith explained to the students the tracking program of the State Police. F. T. A. also sponsored a basketball game which netted $150, which was donated to Project Hope. To complete the year's activities, we became the foster parents of a 7 year old Vietnamese boy.

The 1968 yearbook staff operated under a number of new changes this year. The yearbook title was changed from the traditional "Treasured Memories" to "Resume". Fall was the season when the seniors solicited advertising. Photographers began early this year and supplied the yearbook with numerous pictures.

Forensics

This past year there were nine contestants in forensics. The forensic advisor was Miss Rehner. The idea behind forensics is to help students further develop the art of oral interpretation. Forensics also gives the students the competition of participating with students from different schools, thus having interschool competition.

Junior Classical League

The J. C. L. this year sponsored a dance and a raffle. This money went to Project Hope and helped pay the way for 16 members to attend the State Convention in Ann Arbor. The officers were President - Elaine Kohagon, Vice-President - Joyce Wohlfert, and Secretary-Treasurer - Theresa Kohagon.

Future Nurses

With the aid of Miss Schavey, President Theresa Thelen, Vice President Carol George, Secretary Rosemary Smith, Treasurer Janet Kramer and the members of the Future Nurses' Club spent one of their most active years. The highlight of this school year was the adoption of the foster child, Ioannis Lakonitis. Through the Foster Parents Plans, the Future Nurses Club applied for the desired age, sex and nationality of the foster child. Little Ioannis is a 10 year old boy who lives in Greece.

Office Assistants

During the 1967-68 school year 21 students volunteered their services as office assistants. These students fulfilled various jobs from the routine of running errands to decorating birthday cards for fellow office workers. They typed letters, dittos, distributed messages, dictation writing, and used office machines. These workers learned how to greet visitors with a smile.

ALL-STAR BAND: L. to R.: Dale Horn, Todd Beachnau, Roger Schneider, Shirley Barker.

The P-W High School band for the 1967-68 school year consists of thirty-nine members strong with Mr. Thomas Spencer as their director. The band's officers include Roger Schneider--President, Dave Cummins--Vice-President, Dale Horn--Secretary-Treasurer, and Danny Cherpes--Reporter. The band's activities began its debut with marching activities. The marching activities include the Ionia Free Fair Parade, the honoring of the deceased veterans of foreign wars on Memorial Day, and the half-time shows for the home football games. The climax of the band's half-time shows materialized this year with the Homecoming Parade and the pre-game festivities, when drum majorette, Beth Hogle, entertained the spectators with an exhibition of fire twirling. After marching season ended, the band began perfecting their concert music for their Christmas performance, and later on, Spring Concert.

PAC

The "Leader of PAC", Mr. Pilmore guided his group of enthusiastic actors and workers into a great year. The officers are President: Rosemary Smith, V. President: Larry Fedewa, Secretary: Therese Thelen, Treasurer: Darlene Smith, Historian-Reporter: Beth Hogle.

A few of their activities include "Rest Assured", a three-act comedy and was most successful. The PAC also directed the 8th grade play "Life of the Party" in Westphalia.

Heads Behind Production

Only through the constant help of our dedicated directors could the production "Rest Assured" be such a success. These people put hundreds of hours of work into this production and gave up much of their time to make the 1968 play a memorable one.

BEHIND THE SCENES

"REST ASSURED" marked the third year the Performing Arts Company has produced plays. Through the play students were able to broaden their knowledge in the field of drama and the application of makeup. They learned lighting setup and properties and set designs. They also gained experience in the field of publicity.

Tough Conference Rivals; Pirates Tie For Second

P-W's dream of a first place track team came very close to reality as we finished a strong second at the end of the season. However, at the League Meet Bruce Rathburn set a new league record in the 440 yd. dash with the time of 53.1. Bruce also went on to the State Meet and brought home more fame to P-W by winning a medal for seventh place in the 440 yd. dash.

The 1968 baseball season started early this year and along with it came eight returning lettermen from last year's championship team. Coach Bill Marks was the head of the Pirates crew and promised an interesting season. The big guns for the Pirates this year were Mike Miller and Bruce Rathburn. Mike, the Pirates' most winning pitcher, hurled a perfect game this season. Bruce turned in a great season by making some spectacular catches in center field.

Fans cheer the Pirates on to Victory

The Pewamo-Westphalia basketball team completed their season with a 10 and 9 win-lost record. Perhaps the biggest victory was that over St. Pats. The whole game was nip and tug all the way, but in the end our Pirates emerged the victors.

Throughout the season, our team's spirit remained undaunted even after several defeats. Their constant efforts to improve gained them fourth place in the league standings.

In practice the players tuned up for the long, hard grind ahead as the coach, Bill Marks, evaluated and scrutinized. However, there remained several gaping holes to fill in the team ranks.

Even though only six starters returned to the gridiron, the coach was optimistic. The coach endured his share of lumps until Friday, October 6. For the second year in a row, the Pirates established a Homecoming victory.

But due to the team's lack of experience and the necessity of adapting themselves to a new coach, the CMAC trophy did not come to rest in the P-W showcase. However, the Pirates did match last year's football record with a 2-5-1 season.

Where The Action Is

A Homecoming crowd of about 1,000 cheered the Pirates to victory for the second year in a row in what appears to be the start of a tradition.

The team scored the lone touchdown of the game in the second quarter on an eight-yard run by Jim Bengel. The team recovered a Laingsburg fumble on the Wolfpack 22-yard line to set the stage for their touchdown. The Pirate's defensive crew didn't allow Laingsburg inside the Pirate 35-yard line.

On October 6 during the halftime of the Lainsburg-P-W game, an impressive number of spectators watched as the homecoming convoy circled the playing field. Anticipation grew as the long awaited moment finally came--"May we present our new 1968 Homecoming queen--Rosemary Smith."

Sue Thelen relinquishes her crown to Rosemary Smith

After the Homecoming game, the Royal Court made its way to the victory dance featuring "The Balloon Farm" sponsored by the Seniors. The popular band was from Boston. The theme of the dance was "Royalty of '68".

Carousel

Once an idea, now a memory, the Junior-Senior Prom, Carousel, took place Saturday night, May 4. The theme was characterized by a colorful carousel in the center of the gym, while pastel curtains of pink, blue, and white draped the walls.

A gaily decorated refreshment table at the far end of the gym contained various styles of cookies and punch. The Riders provided the musical entertainment for this memorable evening "Carousel."

Junior-Senior Banquet

The Junior-Senior banquet, decorated in the Seniors class colors of Nautilus Blue and Mary Blue was held on May 15, in the gym. After a roast beef dinner, the featured speaker, Father Roy Schoendorff was introduced by the toastmaster, Rex Kramer. After Father's talk "You can't sell peanuts at the end of the parade, Bill Freund read the prophecies. The banquet came to an end as Rev. Aloysious Miller invoked God's blessing.

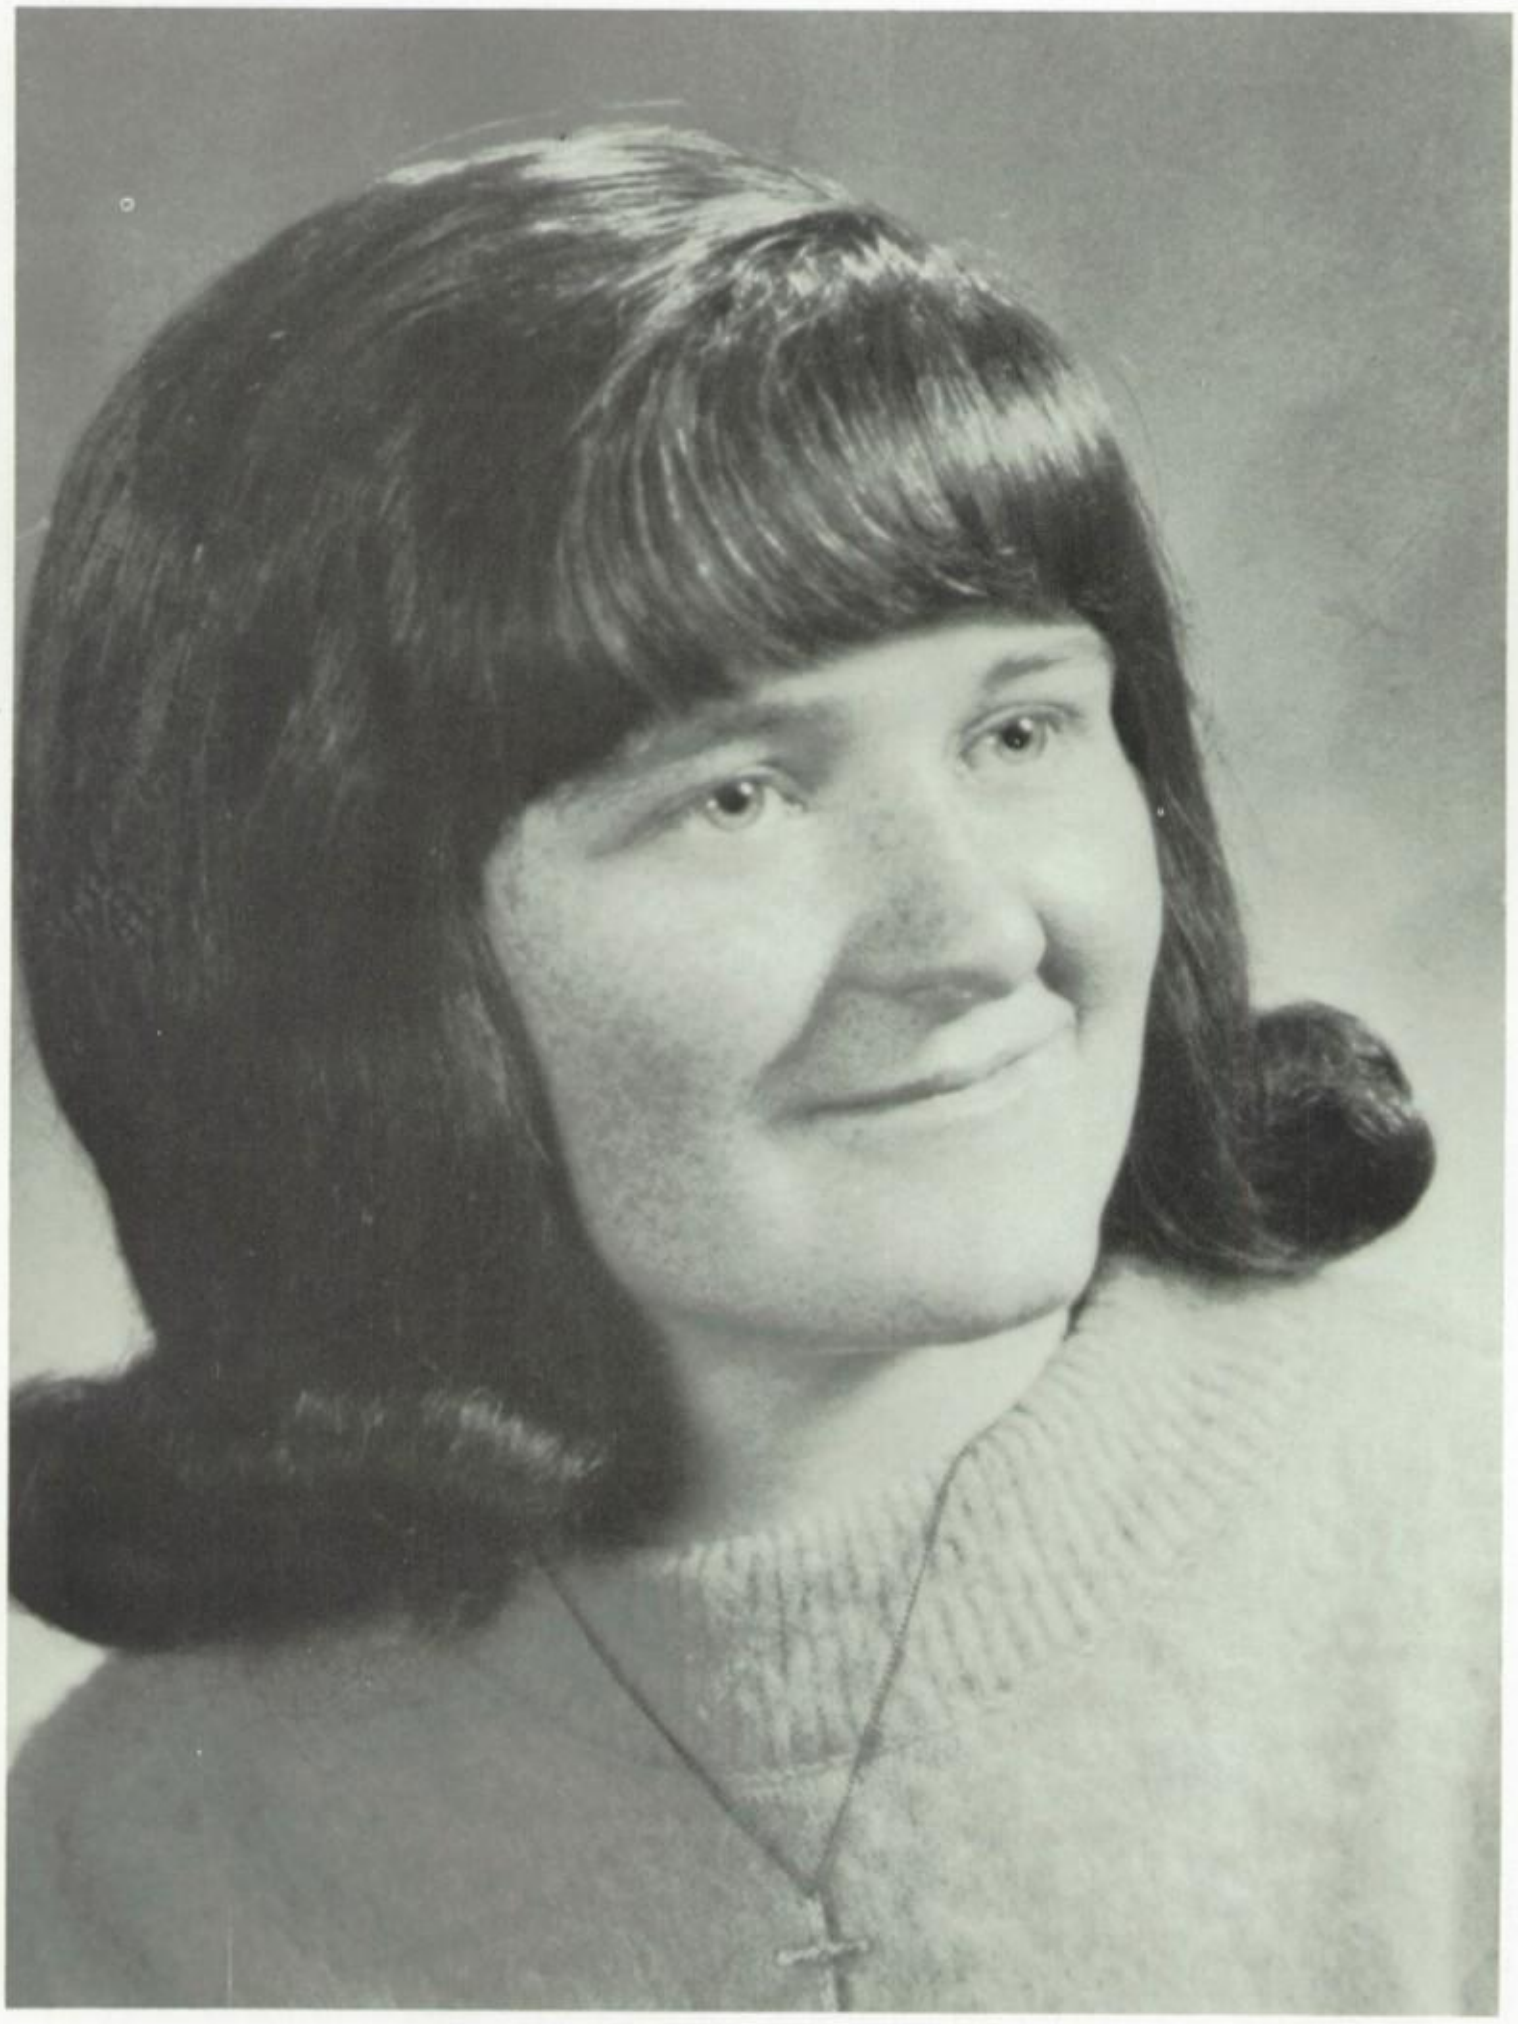
We feel a little sad at leaving and a little eager to go on to something new



In Remembrance . . .

In memory of Mary Hearld, a 1967 graduate of Pewamo-Westphalia, who passed away July 8, 1967 in an automobile accident. Her humor and enthusiasm are gone, but she is not forgotten.

I Shall Not Pass This Way Again

Through this toilsome world, alas!
Once and only once I pass;
If a kindness I may show,
If a good deed I may do
To a suffering fellow man,
Let me do it while I can,
No delay, for it is plain
I shall not pass this way again.

As we, the 1968 RESUME' staff, depart from these halls, we would like to thank all those who, in their own significant way, helped to make this yearbook a reality.
Mr. Cotter for his support ...
Mr. Casari and the faculty for understanding ...
Mr. McKnight of the Taylor Publishing Company for his advice and suggestions ...
Mr. Dehn for his photography ...
The advertisers who made our yearbook possible ...
And all those who spent many hours in making this yearbook a success.

REVOLVING, THE WORLD CHANGES

Slowly, silently -
almost without our awareness,
the world has continued to revolve
over the past four years
And now, with graduation,
we are left alone with memories of yesterday and the little world
at Pewamo-Westphalia High School.
The revolutions of time
cannot sweep away the memories of days spent at PWHS.
We as Youth, "the Light of Life"
must go forward with the Knowledge
We have gained -
Our high school diplomas are passports
into the world of tomorrow.
Perhaps tomorrow touches the realms
of army life, married life,
or college life:
All of these are representatives
of adult life,
For, upon completion of high school
we accept adult responsibilities -
The greatest being the dedication of our lives to a vision
with a task.
Yesterday ... today ... tomorrow ...
Revolving, the world changes.
